

For each year in the contract period, 60% of students in grades 2-6 attending OOCS continuously from fall to spring will achieve grade level proficiency in the area of math as measured by the spring NWEA assessment.

For each year in the contract period, 60% of students in grades 2-6 attending OOCS continuously from fall to spring will achieve grade level proficiency in the area of reading as measured by the spring NWEA assessment.

For each year in the contract period, 60% of students in grades 2-6 attending OOCS continuously from fall to spring will increase their RIT scores by 3 percentage points, as compared to NWEA normative data from the fall to spring NWEA testing in the area of reading.

For each year in the contract period, 60% of students in grades 2-6 attending OOCS continuously from fall to spring will increase their RIT scores by 3 percentage points annually, as compared to NWEA normative data from the fall to spring NWEA testing in the area of math.