

Mission Related Goal:

By 2018, 75% of continuously enrolled students' Anishinaabe language oral communication skills will progress from basic developmental proficiency stage to intermediate developmental proficiency in the areas of listening and speaking, measured by the Ontario Ministry of Education's First Nations Language Benchmarks.