Resources:

- Ojibwe People's Dictionary: <http://ojibwe.lib.umn.edu/>. When you encounter a new word in Ojibwe or need to translate an English word into Ojibwe, look it up in the dictionary. The dictionary also includes sound clips of most words and many phrases to help with your pronunciation.
- Class Website: http://oshkiogimaag.org/ojibwe/language_table. Handouts from class.
- Quizlet: <https://quizlet.com/class/12829603/>. Vocabulary from class in online flashcards.

Books

- Nichols & Nyholm, A Concise Dictionary of Minnesota Ojibwe. Hard copy of the online dictionary. The online version of the dictionary now has more entries, but the book is still helpful, especially if internet access is a problem.

Beginning Speakers Online Resources:

- Ojibwe Word of the Day: <http://www.jamesvukelich.com/>. James Vukelich provides pronunciation and detailed explanation in English of important Ojibwe words.
- Ojibwe Teacher Lisa: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCckFM-0gEqxfGr83RzB8hYQ>. YouTube channel with short musical videos explaining beginning grammar concepts.
- UW-Eau Claire Beginning Ojibwe class:
<https://www.uwec.edu/academics/college-arts-sciences/departments-programs/languages/academic-offerings/all-languages/online-ojibwe-language-program/>
The University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire has video of its Beginning and Intermediate Ojibwe classes.
- Ojibwe.net: <http://ojibwe.net/>. UW-Milwaukee Professor Margaret Noodin curates an extensive website with lessons, songs, and stories. Some of the Ojibwe on this site is in the Eastern Dialect of Ojibwe spoken in Lower Michigan, where they drop vowels. Still very useful and easy to understand for speakers in Minnesota, Wisconsin, and the western Upper Peninsula.
- Fond du Lac: <http://www.fdlrez.com/ojibwe/>. The Fond du Lac Band has learning resources for children and beginning speakers.

Intermediate Speakers Online Resources:

- GLIFWC: <https://www.glifwc-inwe.com/>. The Great Lakes Indian Fish and Wildlife Commission has an excellent series of children's books all in Ojibwemowin.
- OOG: <http://ojibwemotaadidaa.weebly.com/oog-and-fdl-resources.html>. The Ojibwemotaaditaa Omaa Gidakiiminaang Language Institute at Fond du Lac has an extensive catalog of vocabulary based on Ojibwe first speakers from Minnesota and Ontario.
- Ojibwe Stories Gaganonididaa: <https://www.kumd.org/programs/ojibwe-stories>. KUMD produces a bi-lingual half hour radio show with first speakers on topics of Ojibwe culture. All stories are also presented in English, so this is of interest to beginning Ojibwe speakers (or non-speakers) as well.

More Resources

- This is just a partial list: there are dozens of Ojibwe language resources online. A more extensive list can be found at: <http://www.fdlrez.com/ojibwe/links.htm>.
